2016 Events

Co-Cheol in Concert

Friday 29 April, 7.30 pm

Come along and listen to the award winning singing sensation, Co-cheol. Their inaugural performances took place at the Cygnet Folk Festival 2014 where they were received with standing ovations and were invited to perform in the Director's Choice Concert. You will thoroughly enjoy their repertoire including folk and a cappella with a Celtic flavour.

Fame, Fortune & Lies

Friday 13 May, 7.30 pm

Sunday 15 May, 2.00 pm

Fame, Fortune & Lies: the Life and Music of Eileen Joyce is a window into the life of Eileen Joyce; an Australian concert pianist, recording artist, radio performer, fashionista and film star during and after the Second World War. Written and performed by Julia Hastings, Fame,

Fortune & Lies is at times funny and at other times heartbreaking - a unique one-women production combining drama and fine classical music.

Master's Recital

Tuesday 14 June, 7.30 pm

The sixth Annual Master's Recital will feature the finest young musicians from St Margaret's and Berwick Grammar School playing pieces covering a wide range of genres and styles. Musicians are auditioned and the best twelve are invited to perform. The Master Musician's Award is given to the most professional musician. Special guests this year are the Vivace String Orchestra, conducted by Mr Willem van der Vis.
