The St Margaret’s and Berwick Grammar School Parents’ and Friends’ Association invites all ladies and their friends to our annual Mothers’ Day lunch.

Date: Friday 8 May 2015
Time: 11.00 am to 2.00 pm
Venue: Boon Wurrung Café / The Tarnuk Room
Royal Botanic Gardens, 1000 Ballarto Road, Cranbourne South
Ph: 5990 2247, Melways Ref: 133 K10
Price: $75.00 per person includes complimentary drink on arrival, two course lunch, tea and coffee.
Bus Transfer: Complimentary bus transfer service from St Margaret’s School departing St Margarets Place at 10.15 am and returning to St Margaret’s School by 2.45 pm. Limited places can be secured through the online booking process.
Bookings: www.stmargarets.vic.edu.au (under Upcoming Events)
RSVP: Friday 1 May 2015

Special Guests:
Past students, Rosalie Ham (1973) and Sue Maslin (1971)

These two dynamic and inspirational women are turning The Dressmaker written by Rosalie and screen produced by Sue into a feature film starring Kate Winslet, Judy Davis, Liam Hemsworth, and Isla Fisher. To be slated for Australia wide cinema release in late 2015.

Rosalie will be available for book signing on the day.

Thank you to Peake Real Estate for their ongoing support of our annual Mothers’ Day Lunch.

The Royal Botanic Gardens specialise in Australian native plants on 363 hectares, including heathlands, wetlands, woodlands and walking tracks. The garden features a number of exhibition gardens, sculptures and displays aimed to bring beauty and diversity of the Australian landscape and plants to the public.